MICHELLE QUINN INVITED TO SPEAK AT CBABC'S STUDENT SERIES ON EMPLOYMENT LAW

Michelle Quinn, partner and co-chair of the Employment and Human Rights Group, has been invited by the Canadian Bar Association BC Branch to share with students her extensive experience as an employment and human rights lawyer. In addition to her legal practice, Michelle conducts workplace investigations and provides training to organizations on workplace policies including bullying, discrimination, and harassment.

This upcoming interactive session held on February 11, 2026, will equip aspiring legal professionals with essential insights into practice expectations, courtroom strategies, approaches for effectively navigating law school, and potential career paths available with a law degree.
